A Week on the Turquoise Coast

DAY 1: Dalyan

Swim in the river or take a boat down to the fine sand of beautiful Iztuzu beach, home to nesting loggerhead turtles, and explore the ruins of ancient Kaunos across the river.

DAY 2 Kayakoy

On the way to the abandoned Greek village of Kayakoy is the market town and yacht harbor of Fethiye, with abundant eating places, rock-cut Lyc, tombs, a fine archaeological museum, and a lively Friday farmers' market.

DAY 3 Patara

Visit Patara, an ancient city that combines a stunning turtle-nesting beach with the romantic, dune engulfed ruins of Roman Patara.

DAY 4 Saklikent Gorge and Tlos

Visit the hinterland of a region known in ancient times as Lycia by exploring Saklikent Gorge, formed by waters tumbling down from Mount Akdag.

A Week on the Turquoise Coast

DAY 5: Ucagiz and Castle

Explore the lively resort of Kas, formerly a tranquil Greek fishing village. To the southwest, on a magnificent stretch of heavily indented, islet-dotted coast, sits the village of Ucagiz.

DAY 6: Ciralı

Follow the beautiful coastal road from Ucagiz to Ciralı. Swamped in citrus groves fronting a shingle beach and backed by high, forested peaks, this low-rise, the low-key resort is the ideal place to relax.

DAY 7: Phaselis

A short drive brings you to the beachside ruins of ancient Phaselis, where a skeletal Roman aqueduct rises above pines.

What to Eat...

If you like to experience local flavors,
let's prepare a special taste tour together for you!

Stuffed Vine Leaves

These are vine leaves, stuffed with a tantalizing mixture of rice, fresh dill, mint, and lemon. 'Yum' is the only word to describe these. These can either be a main dish or an appetizer, depending on your appetite.

Humus

Hummus is a popular dish that is simply made with ground chickpeas, olive oil, lemon, and garlic. It is the favorite Mediterranean and Middle Eastern dish that each region has its own way of cooking method.

Doner Kebab

Try Turkish doner kebab, a street food favorite, of deliciously seasoned ground and served in pita bread or rice.

What to Eat...

Mussels

Stuffed mussels (Midye dolma) that contain herbed and spiced rice. Midye dolma is a popular and common street food snack in the coastal cities of Turkey.

Maras Ice - Cream

Literally the Turkish word for 'frozen or freezing', dondurma is the delicious local rendition of ice cream. A little different from western-style ice-creams, however; traditional Turkish ice cream is sweet, creamy, stretchy, and chewy at the same time.

Kadayif

Kunefe is a traditional dessert made soaked in a sweet, sugar-based syrup, and typically layered with cheese, or with other ingredients such as clotted cream, pistachio, or nuts, depending on the region.
